GIFT A LIFE

The Aarti is an important part of the Hindu rituals. After the prayer the Aarti tray is passed on to the entire group so that by moving the cup of their hands over the Aarti flame they receive blessings. At the end of the Aarti, Parsad is distributed to all the devotees after Lord bestows his blessings during the entire Aarti. There are other ways to seek the God's blessings. Donate Blood!
